

CALL FOR PAPERS

Conference on Environment, Innovation and Performance

Where and when: Grenoble, June 4th and 5th, 2007

Organizer: INRA, GAEL

The objective of the Conference is to gather recent theoretical and empirical contributions related to the theme “Environment, innovation and performance”. Topics include:

- the impact of environmental policies on production and the innovation process
- the Porter hypothesis
- spillovers in the development of new pollution abatement technology
- development of new green products
- growth, innovation and the environment.

Keynote lectures

Matthieu Glachant (École des Mines)
Bernard Sinclair-Desgagné (HEC Montréal)
Sjak Smulders (University of Calgary)
David Zilberman (Berkeley)

Scientific Committee

S. Ambec, P. Barla, H. Benchechrone, P. Bontemps, C. Crampes, C. Criqui, A. Grimaud,
P. Lanoie, S. Marette, P. Mohnen.

Local Organization

Stefan Ambec (stefan.ambec@grenoble.inra.fr) and Paul Lanoie (paul.lanoie@hec.ca)

Contact and Information

Mariane Damois (mariane.damois@grenoble.inra.fr)

Paper submission

Papers can be submitted in PDF (even preliminary form) at gael@grenoble.inra.fr before January 31st, 2007

Registration

Information on the Conference will be available at www.grenoble.inra.fr Local expenses will be covered for the speakers.