ANNEX 2

Current EAERE Legal Status

EAERE is a non-profit association legally based in Italy (EAERE Statutes, Article 1).

Therefore, the Association must comply with Italian legislation as regards its registration as a non-profit association and fiscal obligations.

For candidates not based in Italy there are two options:

- Dissolution of the current Association based in Italy and the establishment of a new Association in the applicant's country. Relevant articles of the EAERE Statutes for the purpose of the dissolution are 6, 8, 9, 10, and 22.
- Assignment of a legal and accounting office based in Italy with the management of the legal and fiscal obligations when EAERE remains an Italian Association.

Relevant Articles of the EAERE Statutes

Article 1. Establishment - Name - legal Seat - Duration

"A non-profit association named EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION OF ENVIRONMENTAL AND RESOURCE ECONOMISTS is herewith established.

The Association is governed by this statute and has its legal seat in Italy, Venice, Isola di San Giorgio Maggiore 8, 30124.

The Council of the Association has full capacity to transfer its legal seat and to open new offices and websites.

"EAERE" is the abbreviation of the Association.

The Association has unlimited duration and can be dissolved by deliberation of the Extraordinary General Assembly of the members."

Article 6. The Composition

... The General Assembly of Members is Extraordinary in case of amendments of these Statutes and in case of dissolution of the Association. It is Ordinary in all the other cases.

Article 8. Convocation

.... The General Assembly that decides on the amendments to these Statutes or on the dissolution of the Association is convened by the President at least two months before the date set for the General Assembly.

Article 9. Quorum

.... For decisions on the dissolution of the Association and how the assets of the Association will be devolved, the General Assembly can only validly deliberate if at least three quarters of the voting members are present. Resolutions are passed with the votes of at least three quarters of the voting members.

The General Assembly of Members will be effectively constituted also when held by video-conference or tele-conference, provided that all participants can be identified by the General Assembly's President and by all the other participants; that they are able to follow the discussion and to participate in real time on the topics discussed; that they are able to exchange documents relating to these matters; and that all of the above is noted in the minutes.

Article 10. Right to Vote

Every member has the right to vote at the General Assembly of Members.

Each member has the right to only one vote.

Every member may authorize in writing another member to represent him/her at the General Assembly. No member can represent more than two other members. Authorizations must be mentioned in the minutes of the General Assembly and included in the Association's archives.

Article 22. Dissolution of the Association

The General Assembly of Members that deliberates on the dissolution of the Association shall appoint one or more liquidators preferably amongst its members.

The assets of the Association shall be donated to another entity or association with similar aims or for the purposes of public utility, as identified by Assembly Members, unless otherwise required by law.
